The Chiefs of Ontario will host a First Nations Community Wellness Conference in March 2024, in Toronto, ON. This conference will be a First Nations collaborative forum for all sectors, to work together in “Making the shift to intergenerational healing: Building the bundle to create wellness for ourselves, our communities and the generations to come, across all aspects of First Nations life”. We are now accepting Call for Presentations from all sectors, looking at Wellness from a holistic community lens, recognizing the important role that each sector play in improving quality of life for First Nations across Ontario.

Live Streaming will be offered for the Main Plenary Conference room only.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

First Nation community workers from all sectors, technicians and leadership.

TRAVEL:

Unfortunately, we are not able to cover travel costs. Delegates are responsible for their own travel arrangements and expenses. No reimbursement will be provided.
